ALIAS SUMMONS.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF the Fifth Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Nye.

Action brought in the District Court of the Fifth Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Nye, and the complaint filed in said county of Nye, in the office of the Clerk of said District Court.

Thomas E. Lahan, Plaintiff, vs. Edward Clifford, Sr., Gilbert Rayburn, Lawrence Pont, Gust Carlson, J. H. Durfee, Lothrop-Davis Company (a corporation), J. H. Morris, the trustee of the estate of the Carlson M. & M. Co. (a corporation), John Doe and Richard Roe, Defendants.

The state of Nevada sends greetings to Edward Clifford, Sr., Gilbert Rayburn, Lawrence Pont, Gust Carlson, J. H. Durfee, Lothrop-Davis Company (a corporation), J. H. Morris, the trustee of the estate of the Carlson M. & M. Co. (a corporation), John Doe and Richard Roe, defendants.

You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above-named plaintiff in the District Court of the Fifth Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Nye, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons, if served within this county; or, if served out of this county, but in this district, within twenty days, otherwise, within forty days, or judgment by default will be taken against you, according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to recover judgment in the above entitled court decreeing the plaintiff to be the owner of the real estate and premises described in plaintiff's complaint, and also decreeing that said defendants, or either of them, have no right or interest in or to said land and premises, and that said defendants be barred from asserting any claim whatever in or to said premises.

And for a further decree of the court restraining and enjoining you, the said defendants, from entering upon said land and premises, or any part thereof, or taking possession of the same and its appurtenances or moving same from said premises during the pendency of this action, and that upon the final determination of this cause that said injunction may be made perpetual and such other and further relief as to the court may seem meet and proper, and for costs suit.

All of which will more fully appear from the amended complaint on file in this action, to which you are hereby referred for further particulars.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint as above required, said plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in his said complaint.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the District Court of the Fifth Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Nye, this 27th day of June in the year of Our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and ten.

Attest: A true Copy.

TROUBLE IN FEZ IS NOW CRITICAL SAYS REPORTS

CHERADA TRIBESMEN ATTACKING WITH FURY—MASSACRE PRISONERS.

TANGIER, April 28.—News from Captain Bremond, dated April 22, says his column, having received an urgent summons from Fez to create a diversion toward the Ras-elma region so as to relieve the pressure on Fez, where the situation has reached a critical stage, struck camp and began an arduous march fighting every step of the way.

The Cherada tribesmen are attacking with fury and have given the word to massacre all prisoners.

Late news received here regarding the situation at Fez, says Captain Bremond, who is marching at the head of a column to relieve the city, is now in a critical condition. He is short of ammunition and is surrounded by Cherada tribesmen who have returned to positions from which they were recently dislodged.

By an unlucky chance, Captain Boissot, who had been sent to Bremond's aid, when almost within reach, heard that Bremond, profiting by the fine weather, had struck camp and was pushing on to Fez. Boissot decided he would be of no service to Bremond and returned to Alcazar.

The Gharb tribesmen who have been considering the departure of the column equivocal to a defeat, have decided to join the revolt.

DESTROY $10,000 BRIDGE.

TUCSON, Ariz., April 29.—Passengers arriving from the west coast of Mexico say trains are not operating below Quila, due to the destruction of a $10,000 steel bridge. Epes Randolph, vice president of the Southern Pacific in Mexico, it is stated, is now in Mexico to investigate the extent of the damage.

DUTCH HAVE TAKEN AMERICAN ISLAND

MANILA, April 29.—Delayed advice received here via Jolo report that the Dutch have taken possession of Palmas Island, sixty miles south of Mindanao, lowered the American colors and substituted therefor the flag of Holland. It is understood here that Washington does not intend to protest against the action of the Dutch, the American government regarding the island as valueless.

CALL SUSPECTS TRAIN BANDITS

CONDUCTOR AND ENGINEER IDENTIFY O'HARA AND CLORE AS TRAIN ROBBERS.

OGDEN, April 29.—Dramatically rising from the witness stand and pointing his finger at Bryan O'Hara and Victor Clore, Conductor W. A. Middleton, of the Overland Limited train, which was held up at Reese the evening of January 2, said:

"Those are the men who robbed the train."

This positive identification was later qualified by an admission from the witness that he might be mistaken, following a searching cross-examination at the hands of Attorney Thomas Marleneaux, of counsel for the defense. In like manner Engineer Ed Rowse identified Bryan O'Hara as the tall bandit who climbed aboard his engine and gave directions regarding the uncoupling of the train.

These were the only witnesses called by the state at the preliminary hearing, which began before Judge J. D. Murphy of the city court. Owing to the crowded condition of the regular court room, the hearing was transferred to the council chamber at the city hall. The room was rapidly filled with a curious crowd, eager to catch a glimpse of the two prisoners who are charged with one of the most spectacular train robberies ever committed in the west, during which a negro porter, William N. Davis, was shot to death and another negro porter, A. N. Taylor, was badly wounded.

After swearing D. H. Roberts, a court stenographer of Salt Lake City, to take the testimony, the court ordered the hearing to proceed. The prisoner arrived in the custody of Sheriff E. E. Harrison and Deputy Sheriffs George Leatham and Frank Ludwig. They were given seats with their backs to the railing which divides the enclosure occupied by the court and attorneys from the outer benches, occupied by the audience. Both prisoners were neatly dressed in blue serge suits, carefully pressed. O'Hara betrayed a slight nervousness at times during the hearing, but Clore appeared the most disinterested person in the court room.

When Conductor Middleton pointed his finger at both men to identify them as the bandits who held up his train, O'Hara and Clore met his gaze without batting a lash. When Engineer Rowse said that

$3.50 Recipe Cures For Weak Kidneys

Relieves Urinary and Kidney Troubles
Backache, Straining, Swelling, Etc.

Stops Pain in the Bladder, Kidneys and Back.

Wouldn't it be nice within a week or so to begin to say good bye forever to the scalding dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of the urine; the forehead and the back-of-the-head-aches; the stitches and pains in the back; the growing muscle weakness; spots before the eyes; yellow skin; sluggish bowels; swollen eyelids or ankles; leg cramps; unnatural short breath; sleeplessness and the despondency?

I have a recipe for these troubles that you can depend on, and if you want to make a quick recovery, you ought to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $2.50 just for writing this prescription, but I have it and will be glad to send it to you entirely free, just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, K1206 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send it by return mail in a plain envelope. As you will see when you get it, this recipe contains only pure, harmless remedies, but it has great healing and pain-conquering power.

It will quickly show its power once you use it, so I think you had better see what it is without delay. I will send you a copy free—you can use it and cure yourself at home.

O'Hara was the taller of the bandits, O'Hara dropped his eyes slightly, but recovered himself instantly and looked calmly at the witness.

Both witnesses became confused at times during their cross-examination, which was conducted by Judge Marleneaux, and made statements which will probably be used in favor of the defendants by their attorneys. Judge O. W. Powers, senior counsel for the prisoners, took no part in the cross-examination, but carefully noted on a scratch pad many of the statements of the witnesses. District Attorney E. T. Hulaniski was present at the hearing, conferring frequently with County Attorney David Jensen, who is conducting the case for the state.
